

A Plan to 'Try' Hanoi Leaders For War Crimes

Philadelphia

The Rev. Carl McIntire prompted by returning POWs' stories of torture, said yesterday he plans to conduct "war crimes" trials of North Vietnamese leaders.

The disclosures and accusations of brutality leveled by the former prisoners "reveal that the North Vietnamese and the Viet Cong were war criminals all along and that our leaders knew about it," he asserted.

Plans for the trial are still preliminary because ex-POWs are still talking, the Rev. Mr. McIntire said.

Associated Press