

Hecklers in L.A. 'Hang' Jane Fonda

Los Angeles

Hecklers hanged Jane Fonda in effigy yesterday as the activist actress addressed 1500 students on the campus of the University of Southern California.

Miss Fonda ignored cries of "debate, debate, debate." from members of the Young Americans for Freedom, who taunted her during her talk.

After her hour-long speech, the hecklers held a mock trial and found Miss Fonda guilty of collaborating with the North Vietnamese.

Miss Fonda, meanwhile, told newsmen that the media had taken her remarks about prisoners of war "out of context."

"I never blanketly said that all prisoners of war are lying," she said.

"I said the primary lie comes from the U.S. Government and that is the one we have to concern ourselves with."

Miss Fonda said she believed POWs were lying when they accused the North Vietnamese of a systematic policy of torture.

United Press

2nd Century Jug Found in Russia

Moscow

Archeologists in Uzbekistan discovered a ceramic jug filled with gold bars, bracelets and rings the state bank estimates is worth $1.34 million, the Tass news agency said yesterday.

Tass said the treasure dated from the 2nd Century A.D. and was found during excavation of an old house on the banks of the central Asian river Surhandarya.

United P.