

Editor — There should be no justification for the brutality undergone by many of the U.S. POWs captured in North Vietnam. However one wonders what would happen to a North Vietnamese soldier, who after bombing U.S. factories, "accidentally" destroying hospitals, and killing innocent civilians was captured by the U.S. military or U.S. civilians, or even worse, the Reverend Billy Graham.

PHILIP BUCHEK

Sunnyvale