

APR 25 1973

Need Muscle

MANHATTAN (Kan.) — (U.P.I.) — Peaceful talks about Southeast Asia must be backed up by U.S. power, Gen. Alexander M. Haig, Army vice chief of staff, says.

"We must use negotiations backed up by credible U.S. power because without it there can be no peaceful negotiations in such a way that . . . we develop a consensus for stability throughout the globe," Haig told a Kansas State University audience last night.