

Kissinger Arrives in Paris for Talks With Tho About

PARIS, May 16 (Reuters)—Henry A. Kissinger arrived here tonight for talks with Le Duc Tho aimed at strengthening the Vietnam cease-fire agreement. The talks begin tomorrow morning. Mr. Kissinger, President Nixon's adviser on national security, and Mr. Tho, a member of the Hanoi Politburo, negotiated the agreement signed here on May 27. They will also take up the Cambodian and Laotian problems as part of an over-all Indochinese settlement, according to well-informed diplomats here. Mr. Kissinger's aides include	William H. Sullivan, Deputy Assistant Secretary of State for East Asia and Pacific Affairs, and other senior officials. Mr. Tho flew here Monday, accompanied by Nguyen Co Thach, Deputy Foreign Minister, and other top officials. The two sides will discuss means for stricter observance of the cease-fire in South Vietnam in the face of reported continued infiltration of North Vietnamese troops into the South and American hints of resumed bombing of the North unless violations of the Paris peace pact ended. Hanoi is insisting on a resumption of United States	minesweeping in North Vietnamese waters and a renewal of talks on American reconstruction aid. The minesweeping and negotiations on postwar aid were suspended last month in retaliation against the reported infiltration of 30,000 North Vietnamese troops into the South since the signing of the Paris agreement. North Vietnam contends that the Saigon Government has been considerably strengthened by illegal supplies of United	States arms since the departure of American troops. oSaigon Talks at Impasse SAIGON, South Vietnam, May 16 (Reuters) — South Vietnam said today that military talks with the Vietcong to strengthen the Paris cease-fire agreement had reached an impasse. Brig. Gen. Phan Hoa Hiep, deputy leader of the Saigon Government's delegation to the Two-Party Joint Military Commission, gave the opinion on the talks.
--	--	---	--

c 3

Cease-Fire

He said a news conference called the review the first 100 days of the Paris accords that the impasse had been caused by Vietcong stubbornness.

But General Hiep said that despite the deadlock, the South Vietnamese Government would continue talking with the Vietcong to show its goodwill.

"We accept the struggle with them at the conference table and will continue to talk because we passionately want peace," he said.