Hatfield Hits
Nixon Rhetoric

Sen. Mark Hatfield (R-Ore.) yesterday accused President Nixon of using the word "Communist" as "a scare tactic" in vetoing a congressional ban on the continued bombing of Cambodia.

Mr Nixon used the word "Communist" five times "in threatening tones," Hatfield said. "Just who are these Communists? Can they be the Communists so frequently toasted last week and whose flags were officially flown throughout Washington?"

"Our bombs are not destroying an ideology—the are killing Cambodians opposing a feeble and corrupt regime kept afloat by U.S. tax dollars."
