

SFC 16 MAR 74

No Illegal Advice To Cambodians State Dept. Says

Washington

The State Department said yesterday it found no justification of published reports that a U.S. officer illegally instructed Cambodian armed forces in the field, but Secretary of State Henry Kissinger said that he is checking into the reports.

"The embassy has assured us that military personnel were fully instructed as to the legislative restrictions and are complying with those legislative restrictions," department spokesman George Vest told reporters.