Cambodia Calls Recapture 'Act Of Agression'

Bangkok

Cambodia called the American recapture of the U.S. freighter Mayaguez a "savage, ferocious, insane and flagrant act of aggression."

Cambodian government spokesman Hu Nim said the Khmer Rouge had returned all crew members of the Mayaguez yesterday "at a time when U.S. aircraft were carrying out savage bombing and strafing raids."

Hu Nim said U.S. fighter-bombers carried out raids against a Cambodian naval base and struck at the airport, and an oil refinery at Sihanoukville.
