6-18-71 NYT

F.B.I. Continues Investigation Of How Times Got Secret Study

The Federal Bureau of In-on the tudy, but he refused to vestigation in Washington said discuss his role in it. yesterday that it was continu- "I'm glad the stuff is out," ing its investgation to deter- he told the reporter about the Pentagon study on Vietnam.

find Daniel Ellsberg, a former get it." Government adviser now with the Massachusetts Institute of the source of the study by Sid-Technology, after reports in ney Zion, a former Times re-New York and Washington that porter and editor of the defunct he gave the study to The Times. magazine Scanlon's Monthly, mist, Mr. Ellsberg worked as a strategic analyst for the RAND Corporation, a "think tank" that performs research for the Defense Department, before be-Ellsberg had been identified as ing" on Mr. Ellsberg. the source. But it was learned that he had become a primary subject of the investigation as was the Democratic candidate the source. But it was learned early as last Monday when the for State Attorney General last

His Background Checked

The bureau's offices in Boston, New York and several other cities checked on Mr. by Mr. Zion yesterday, he said

A. M. Rosenthal, managing Mr. Zion later was denounced editor of The Times, said The by two other former editors of Times "would not discuss the Scanlon's. question of sources at all."

office on Wedneday. He ac-managing editor, said, in a joint knowledged to a report who statement, "Sidney Zion's repphone then that he had worked licity-seeking scavenger."

mine how The New York Times publication of parts of the obtained a copy of the secret thing for the country. Congress is entitled to get it and In Boston, reporters tried to apparently has been unable to

Mr. Ellsberg was named as that performs research for the Defense Department, before becoming a special assistant to the Assistant Secretary of Defense in 1964. A year later he went to South Vietnam for two years with the Defense Department.

The EPI refused to complete the was also named in all article from the Washington bureau of The St. Louis-Post Dispatch published yesterday. The story quoted a "senior official of the executive branch who is fully familiar with the case" as having said that the case" as having said that the case are the case as the complete the case and the case are the case as the complete the case are the case a The F.B.I. refused to com-ment on the reports that Mr. vealed the study was "center-second article on the Pentagon year, phoned Mr. Gray and was published in The Times. asked to go on the air to make a statement. He then described Mr. Zion's statement as "irresponsible and outrageous."

At a news conference called Ellsberg's background and on he had appeared on the radio program war.

by Mr. Zion yesterday, he sale that yesterday, he sale program "to satisfy my own ego."

westion of sources at all." Warren Hinckle, the co-edi-Mr. Ellsberg was last at his tor, and Thomas Humber, the talked with him on the tele-rehensible act is that of a pub-