

KCBS:

Jess Unruh must be chortling this morning. Governor Reagan, ad-libbing a reply to a question over lunch yesterday, said that a blood bath may be needed to quell militant demonstrators. That statement echoes through Yosemite this morning - that's where he made the remark. His exact words: "If it takes a blood bath, let's get it over with. No more appeasement." Unquote the Governor.

Later Mr. Reagan stole a line from Black Panther David Hilliard: "It was only a figure of speech," he said. That's Hilliard's explanation for a remark he made in Golden Gate Park last year when he suggested - figuratively, according to Hilliard - that President Nixon be killed.
