C 1 6

Los Angeles

urged mebers of his gen-eration yesterday to try to understand and communi-can chief executive told the been taught in thousands of young people are shunning social science courses not the violence, said Reagan. Governor Ronald Reagan social science courses not the eration yesterday to try to understand and communi-cate with the "fine young people" who believe that American society is sick. "I believe that for a longer period of time than we real-ize the many of the aims of the society and the many of the aims of the tionaries — "the crazies" about Califor versity be ca majori teache agen celled them — these ize, too many of them have agan called them — these

He said he is optimistic about prospects for peace on California college and university campuses this year be cause the "great silent majority" of students and teachers is beginning to be

Associated Press