WASHINGTON, Aug. 14 (UPI)

—If the Justice Department decides not to prosecute Jane Fonda for her radio broadcasts from Hanoi, it should recommend legislation to provide criminal penalties for similar cases in the future, the House Internal Security Committee said today.

Representative Richard H. Ichord, Democrat of Missouri, in a letter to Attorney General Richard G. Kleindienst, said, "In the event the Justice Department determines that the broadcasts of Jane Fonda from Hanoi during July, 1972, do not constitute treason or sedition, or that her conduct cannot be reached by existing statute for any other reason, then the department is requested to furnish a report to the committee with recommendations for legislation which would be effective to impose criminal sanctions under similar circumstances in the future."
