NYT 11-22-69

Reaction to Agnew To the Editor:

Spiro Agnew asked that citi-zens register their reactions and convictions with the media.

and convictions with the media. Here is mine. I think Vice President Agnew presented a highly partisan, one-sided view that, instead of uniting the nation, will serious-ly divide it by pushing it to further extremes of unthinking polarization and intolerance. Mr. Agnew is guilty of the very fault of which he accuses the networks. By using the in-fluence of his high office to try to pressure the networks and es

NR . our nation into conformity and toward the old McCarthyism; nineteenth-century reactionism, and a closed society, Mr. Ag-new is helping to undermine our liberties in a serious way. ATHOL D. CLOUD Independence, Mo.

ese a ja

Nov. 14, 1969

. Sam

dia:

0

Agnew's Courage, To the Editor:

I agree completely with Vice President Agnew in his speech riesident Agnew in his speech concerning the news media of the television companies. We in the South are well aware of the slanted news presentaet tion on the various news broad. casts coming from the national networks.

Testimony of the actions of Testimony of the actions of various camera crews at Chi-cago and other places cannot be all lies. Thank goodness that we have a man like Spiro Agnew with the courage to tell the truth. Who did the executives of the networks think they were conning in² their rebuttals? No one. R. E. ENGSTROM Mobile, Ala., Nov. 13 1969

Mobile, Ala., Nov. 13, 1969 0