

Funeral for Slain Guard Tomorrow

The first of the funerals for the San Quentin slain was arranged yesterday — that for Paul W. Krasenes, 52, the 22-year veteran correctional officer.

The Rosary will be recited at 8 o'clock tonight (Tuesday) at Keaton's Chapel of Marin in Novato.

A Requiem Mass will be celebrated at 10:15 a.m. tomorrow (Wednesday) at Our Lady of Loretto Church in Novato, followed by burial in Mt. Olivet Cemetery, San Rafael.

Two other officers and three inmates died in the abortive break.

Officer Krasenes is survived by his wife, Frances; three daughters, Sheryl of Petaluma and Elizabeth and Lorraine of Novato, and his father, William Krasenes of Los Gatos.

Meanwhile, Lester Jackson Sr. said that his son George will be buried in Mt. Vernon, Ill., alongside Jonathan Jackson, the convict's 17-year-old brother who was killed during last year's gun battle at the Marin county civic center.

The father told newsmen he bought a grave "for George and myself" while visiting the site two weeks ago on the August 7 anniversary of Jonathan's death.

"I knew things hadn't been going well for George, so I made this arrangement," he said.
