

$10,000 Reward Offer

The San Francisco Examiner joins Mayor Alioto and The City in offering $5000 reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of those responsible for the killing of Sgt. John Young. Mayor Alioto last night posted The City' $5000 reward; this morning The Examiner adds $5000.

Information may be phoned to the City Editor of The Examiner and will be transmitted to the police investigating authorities. Requests for anonymity will be honored.

Rewards totaling $38,000 from various sources, including The Examiner, are still standing for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the person or persons responsible for the Feb. 16, 1970 bombing of Park Police Station.

That bombing resulted in the death of Sgt. Brian McDonnell and injuries to several other policemen.

8-30-71
SF EXAM