

SF Examiner MAR 20 1972
Magee Own Attorney

Ruchell Magee, San Quentin convict facing the same murder and kidnap charges on which Angela Davis is being tried, won the right today to act as his own attorney when he goes to trial.

Superior Judge Leonard Ginsburg of Visalia, sitting in San Rafael, granted the request on grounds he finds Magee qualified to act as his own attorney.

Also on Magee's request, he appointed attorney Robert Carrow, former mayor of Novato, to be co-counsel.

Magee and Miss Davis once were co-defendants, but their cases were separated.

Magee this morning agreed to delay his own trial for six months or until the conclusion of the Davis trial, whichever is sooner.