Pacific Tell & Tell

RUCHELL MAGEE is one expensive defendant, fellow taxpayer. The bill for transporting him daily by helicopter from San Quentin to court here and back each weekday ran $14,770 for the Oct. 1 - Dec. 31 period, and of course the expense is continuing. Two state helicopters are reserved for Magee, one being a standby, and as of yesterday, nobody could explain why the trip can't be made by car . . . Good news for theater buffs: The great news here with the original . . . the
