

Magee Trial Set

The re-trial of Ruchell Magee on a kidnap charge relating to the Marin Civic Center escape attempt and shooting of August 1970 that ended with four deaths will begin June 29 in San Jose.

Superior Court Judge John Racanelli set the trial date yesterday and said arguments of pre-trial motions will be heard on June 6.

At the conclusion of Magee's first trial, the jury announced it was deadlocked 11 to 1 for acquittal on the murder charge and 11 to 1 for conviction of the kidnap charge.

The prosecution then decided not to re-try Magee on the charge he was responsible for the death of Marin Superior Court Judge Harold Haley.

The new prosecutor for the state at the re-trial will be Deputy Attorney General Timothy Riordan, who replaces Deputy Attorney General Albert Harris.
