URSDAY, SEPTEMBER 14, 1967

Columbia Art-History Teacher Arrested on Visit to East Berlin

BERLIN, Sept. 13 (Reuters) in East Berlin, but usually are Ronald Wiedenhoeft, a 30- not answered. year-old teacher of art history at Columbia Unversity, was ar-

He Is Working for Ph.D.

at Columbia Unversity, was arrested in East Berlin last week, a spokesman for the United States Mission said today. He said the reason that Mr. Wiedenhoeft was taken into custody had not yet been determined, and it was not known what he was doing in the Communist sector of the city.

The spokesman said that Mr. Wiedenhoeft, who is 24 years old and was born in Berlin, said he went to East Berlin, said he went to East Berlin, said he went to East Berlin on Sept. 5 and did not meturn.

The spokesman said that Mr. Wiedenhoeft, who is from Milwaukee, was living in West Berlin while working on a thesis in art history. American authorities were not officially informed of the arrest by East German officials, he added. "We are quite concerned over this, as one would normally expect official notification in such a case," the spokesman said. Apparently no charges were brought against Mr. Wiedenhoeft, he said, adding that were brought against Mr. Wiedenhoeft, he said, adding that he was not aware that Mr. Wiedenhoeft had made any contact with East German or Soviet officials.

Because the United States does not recognize East Germany, it has no diplomatic representation with the East German Government. Queries are lodged with the Soviet Embassy 1964.

A '59 Graduate of Cornall The Coloumbia University information office said yesterday that Ronald Wiedenhoeft was appointed a part-time teacher in the department of art history and archaeology in 1965. He received a bachelor of civil engineering capies from Cornall The Coloumbia University information office said yesterday that Ronald Wiedenhoeft was appointed a part-time teacher in the department of art history and archaeology in 1965. He received a bachelor of civil engineering capies from Cornall The Coloumbia University information office said yesterday that Ronald Wiedenhoeft was appointed a part-time teacher in the department of art history and archaeology in 1965. He received a bachelor of civil engineering capies from Cornall The Coloumbia University information office said yesterday that Ronald Wiedenhoeft was appointed a part-time teacher in the department of art history and archaeology in 1965. He received a bachelor of civil engineering capies from Cornall The Coloumbia University information office said yesterday that Ronald Wiedenhoeft was appointed a part-time teacher in the department of art history and archaeology in 1965. He received a bachelor of civil engineering capies from Cornal Ronald Wiedenhoeft was appointed a part-time teacher in the department of art history and archaeology in 1965. He received a bachelor of civil engineering capies from Cornal Ronald Wiedenhoeft was appointed a part-time teacher in the department of art history and archaeology in 1965. He received a bachelor of civil engineering capies from Cornal Ronald Wiedenhoeft was appointed a part-time teacher in the department of art history and archaeology in 1965. He received a bachelor of civil