

At 160', Sony 102:

Turner - ... As you may guess, there is a tremendous fear on the part of people because there have been all these so-called mysterious deaths.

Spann - As Penn Jones wrote.

Turner - As Penn Jones wrote about.

Spann - How many mysterious deaths up to this time?

Turner - Well, he's tabulated it up now to around thirty.

Spann - Thirty deaths.

Turner - Yes, somewhere in that neighborhood. And I'm convinced that at least some of those were related to the assassination.

Spann - Some of them have been written off as very common heart attacks, and yet I found out the other day a heart attack can be simulated.

Turner - I hate to drag the CIA in at all times but in intelligence work, to get rid of somebody they call it "executive action", and the CIA as well as I'm sure opposition intelligence agencies have what are called heart attack pills. They slip it in your drink and 24 hours later you have a heart attack. A number that -

Spann - Now how do you know that? The CIA has a heart attack pill?

Turner - I know this by persons who have been in the CIA that have approached me roundaboutly and I've gotten in contact with them. I've gotten it from so many sources I believe it.
