

Albert Irked Over China

Washington (AP) - The White House ... said yesterday that President Nixon had spoken with Chinese leaders about John Thomas Downey, an American pilot held in China since the Korean War.

Downey, charged with espionage in 1952, had his sentence commuted from life to five years last December.

[White House press secretary Ronald Ziegler] refused to disclose details of Nixon's discussions about Downey.

.....