August 11, 1972 Part One

Los Angeles Free Press

Washington merry go round

WASHINGTON — An estimated 1,500 JACK ANDERSON CIA in diplomatic garb. Operatives from the Central In-telligence Agency (CIA), Defense In-they carry on their spying activities intelligence agents have quietly in-filtrated the State Department where old-line foreign service officers. grumbling and grievances among have taken over many key posts. National Security Agency (NSA) telligence Agency (DIA) and This has caused considerable > sfers arranged and even a few resignations forced to clear foreign service officers out of the way so injobs. telligence agents can take over their promotions have been rigged, tran-They have charged privately that make room for a CIA agent. When derson who claims he was bumped from his political job in Sofia to foreign service officer Charles An-One grievance case, hushed up by the State Department, involves > transfer, he got a low efficiency rating for his pains. Anderson complained about the figure came from personnel officers. An official spokesman, however, refused to comment on the number of CIA and related spies in the and-dagger boys were moving into the diplomatic service. The 1,500 sources described how the cloakhis friends told us about his grievance. Other State Department department. Anderson refused to comment, but