

Chilean Break-Ins and Watergate

by Jack Anderson

.....

In a memo intended only for the eyes of senators investigating ITT's operations in Chile, staff director Jerry Levinson reported:

.....

" ... Government and non-government sources alike have told us that the Cuban exile community has a pool of talent which was trained by the CIA and is available for 'dirty tricks.' This talent has been used at one time or another by a number of federal agencies for missions of questionable legality inside and outside of the U.S.

"Federal sources report the Cubans to be absolutely loyal, fanatically anti-communist and willing to take any risk . . . "

[Column also mentions Frank Sturgis, Virgilio Gonzales and Eugenio Martinez.]