VICTOR MARCHETTI, A TOP

CIA

OFFICIAL, AUTHOR OF THE ONLY BOOK
CENSORED BY OUR GOVERNMENT,
TELLS HIS STORY ABOUT THE CIA

IN PENTHOUSE®

"The U.S. Government and Kissinger are morally responsible for the death of President Allende, and for a lot of other crimes committed in the name of the people of the United States."

"Kissinger is power-mad, a manipulator of world events. I don't think he understands what this country is all about. To him, everything is a deal."

"William Colby [CIA Director] is a very dangerous man. I think he's got the mentality of a Heinrich Himmler. He's the kind of guy who is best qualified to run a concentration camp, not an agency like the CIA. The new Colby recommendations for enforcing secrecy in government are worthy of the best Communist commissar in the Soviet Union."

"One had the feeling that we were well in with the [Greek] junta, but it came from only half-completed sentences and knowing glances. I'm convinced there were subsidies for the generals and colonels but I don't have any hard information. It's interesting that when the CIA withdrew its support for the junta, though, it just collapsed, without a single shot being fired."
