WXPost DEC 28 19/4 South Vietnam Expels Marks, DEC 2819/4 Co-Author of Book Hitting CIA

Washington Post Foreign Service

SAIGON, Dec. 27-South Vietnamese immigration authorities today expelled John D. Marks, co-author with Victor

Police said Marks is on the the source siad.

Fificial Interior Department Police took Marks to dinner official Interior Department blacklist of persons the government considers undesirable a list that is maintained at all points of entry.

Marks arrived here several hut and put him on a flight to days ago and was able to enter Bangkok. at Tansonnhut airport, near It could not be learned why for Harper's Saigon, because of sloppy Marks' name was on the offi-spokesman said.

work by immigration authori- cial blacklist, although ties, a police source said.

Later, the source said, Interior Department officials discovered the error. Last night vietnam. Marchetti of the controversial police went to a private apartbook, "The CIA and the Cult ment where Marks was staying and took him into custody, at La Cave, one of the most expensive French restaurants in town, then this morning ushered him out to Tansonn-book contains a large amount of information about clande-

A U.S. embassy spokesman said Marks was a State De-partment officer in South Vietnam in 1966. The spokesman ut and put him on a flight to an article on South Vietnam. It could not be learned why