

Story about Hughes, CIA and sunken Russ sub

LOS ANGELES — Another angle in the mysterious wheeling and dealing of billionaire Howard Hughes will come under scrutiny this week when grand jury hearings begin Tuesday into a theft of files from Hughes' Summa Corp. offices here which reportedly contained correspondence between the billionaire, the CIA and several politicians.

The Los Angeles Times reported Friday the files contained an agreement between the CIA and Summa to raise a sunken Russian submarine from the Atlantic Ocean.
