bassador to Portugal

By Miguel Acoca Special to The Washington Post

LISBON, March, 28—U.S. Ambassador Frank Carlucci officially protested today a newspaper article alleging that he was a Central Intelli-gence Agency "strategist and operator" and that the CIA was behind a Spanish-based, right-wing guerrilla organization plotting to topple the leftist Portuguese government.

The ambassador's protest followed an Information Min-istry statement yesterday that controversial ambassador was "persona grata" in Portugal and expressing disapproval of "irresponsible and unfounded speculation" about him.

Accompanied by visiting U.S. Sen. Edward Brooks, whose home state, Massachusetts, has many Portuguese resi-dents, Carlucci called on Prime minister Vasco Goncalves this evening. He remained to make the protest after the senator left.
