Two S.F. Men Jailed in Calcutta Will Be Released

Calcutta

Two Americans held here for more than two years were sentenced to two years and four months in jail yesterday for smuggling narcotics.

But a city session court judge ruled that the sentences for Richard Winn Harcos, 28, and Anthony Allen Fletcher, 31, both taxi drivers from San Francisco, should be set retroactively to when their detention began in April, 1973.

They will be released soon after the necessary formalities, he said.
