

Notes on People by Laurie Johnston

NYTimes FEB 20 1976
Reports that Howard Hughes is in Acapulco have been officially confirmed by his Summa Corporation in Los Angeles. The information was received by Phil Hannafin, chairman of the Nevada Gaming Control Board, which had ordered that it must be constantly up to date on the whereabouts of Mr. Hughes. As the owner of seven casinos—as well as an airport and extensive other Nevada holdings—he is the state's No. 1 gambling-hall proprietor.