

THE DANGERS OF DISSENT IN PENTAGON

by Cal McCrystal
The Times of London

New York

.....

Last year, Senator [Samuel Ervin (Dem. - N.C.)] introduced a bill designed to protect civil servants from invasion of privacy. The Senate passed the bill by 90 votes to four - the four being also on the CIA watchdog committee. The bill went over to the House of Representatives where it has lain untouched, since last September.

(Clipping filed CIA)