

That's Me All Over

IN ONE EAR: As of now, G. Moscone and J. Barbagelata are running neck-and-neck for Mayor. I can report this with assurance because some bemused San Tranciscans have mistaken their sample for absentee ballots and mailed them Tar. As of last Friday, the vote Parbagelata 2 — and all b zip ... If you the cust made 1h Galleries on C. Ethiopia, it's the cush the basket and bury it so un

Why are you looking at me like that? . Hollywood flash in Variety: Irving S. White has written and will produce a film titled "The Heretic," based on the life and times of the late Bishop James A. Pike of, Grace Cathedral and elsewhere. I hope he includes the Sunday scene here years ago when an electric storm blew out the lights as Jim was preaching. As candles were hastily placed around him, he cracked: "I thought I'd get a trial first!"

OUR TIMES: K. T. Cameron, having rec'd a letter from the Committee to Reopen the Rosenberg Case that had obviously been opened and resealed, wonders if the prying Feds have a Committee to Open the Mail of the Committee to Reopen the Rosenberg Case . . . And Kevin Costello, the North Beach playwright, sent the original and copy of his latest play to a New York agent; it has been lost in the mail, "but on the other hand," he surmises, "since its 'hero' is a defecting CIA agent, perhaps it was FOUND in the mail" * *

1 ALONG THE PICKLED BEAT: As the police surrounded and grabbed a suspected bandido in Laurel Heights, a sport wearing tennis whites emerged from the nearby Laurel Lodge to offer a bowl of popcorn to all concerned, and all partook. "It was a vignette as typical of San Francisco as Ricea-Roni," says Don Nivens, who drank it in with gusto. Lo-cal gusto, I should add About all those blindfolded people sipping ~f drinks under the supervision of ~1 Court at Perry's — they
