Autopsy May Yield Chie in College Death

Raleigh, N.C., Dec. 14 (AP)-Authorities awaited an autopsy report today to help determine 0 O cents surrounding the death of a North Carolina State University $ 2-14 student in his dormitory room. Raymond P. McCauley, 19, a sophomore from Charlotte, was found bound, gagged and strangled with an extension cord yesterday. ~ Assistant Wake County Coro-

Assistant Wake County Groner Truman Rhodes said indications at first were that the death was an apparent suicide, "but something came up that we wanted to check on through an autopsy." He declined to elaborate.

ANOTHER FERRET-LIKE ALUMNUS OF THE WARREN COMMISSION?