'Informant' in Plot Grilled in Closely Guarded Court

By LESLIE H. WHITTEN

World Journal Tribune Special

attorneys

NEW ORLEANS, March 15-Raymond Russo, the "confi-Twenty deputies guarded the dential informant" who testicourtroom today as defense fied he heard Clay Shaw, Lee began intensive Harvey Oswald and David W. cross-examination of Perry Ferrie plotting to kill President John F. Kennedy.

> The extra precautions were taken as authorities said phone calls had been made to various persons involved in the case. Sheriff Louis Heyd said he increased security because of "anticipated trouble."

One of the four lawyers representing Shaw, 54, asked Russo, "Do you believe in God?"

"How do you define God?" responded Russo, 25-year-old insurance salesman, to the lawyer, F. Irving Dymond.

Asked for his own definition. Russo said: "God is everything, the entity of the universe, me, you, everything.

Q. You took an oath to tell the whole truth and nothing but the truth, and how do you define truth?

A. I think I would be telling

Turn to Page 2

WORLD JOURNAL TRIBUNE 3/15/67

Guard Court As 'Informant Questioned

Continued from Page One

it under penalty of the law.

Q. Under penalty of God?

A. God is everything. He is you, me, everything. I consider poenaed the tap of an intermy oath a promise to God, to with Russo made by myself, to everyone in this WSDU-TV in New Orleans Feb.

JUDGE INTERRUPTS

Bagert cut off the line of ques- corder into the courtroom tioning by saying: "This is not a catechism class. Let's move Russo said he was in Ferrie's on out of this area."

about his family background Ferrie planning to assassinate and finances.

At the start of today's sestioned officials from Loyola tering the small courtroom. University and law school Police arrested and booked institution. Dean Anthony Pathe truth to the best as I knew fied records which showed Russo studied law for one year.

Shaw's attorneys today submyself, to everyone in this 24, two days after the death of Ferrie. Dwight Martin, vice president of WDSU-TV, Presiding Judge Bernard J. brought the tape and a re-

In his appearance yesterday, on out of this area." apartment in September 1963 Dymond then quizzed Russo and heard Shaw, Oswald and Kennedy and make a getaway.

A policewoman and a deputy sion, Shaw's attorneys ques-sheriff searched all persons en-about Russo's student records. James R. Liscombe, 30, for Frank J. Stass, registrar of making threatening telephone the school, testified that Russo calls. Liscombe is a musician once attended the New Orleans in a Bourbon Street night club.