The Letter Auction: JFK, Oswald, Ruby

The tragically linked names of John F. Kennedy, Lee Harvey Oswald and Jack Ruby figured prominently in a Manhattan autograph auction last night.

Among the 300 items sold for a total of $56,000 by Charles fred Jarrette, of "All Religions Hamilton Autographs, Inc. at the Waldorf were two letters by the President, one by his assassin, Oswald, to his mother from Russia, and sketches made by Oswald's killer, Ruby, while in the Dallas County Jail.

Other highlights were lettters by President Jefferson to a fellow signer of the Declaration her to sen some fashion magaof Independence and by Gen. George Washington during the which also said, "You needn't Revolution.

A Kennedy letter dated April 2, 1957, while he was a Senator, declaring "the most direct want too." American influence against communism is . . . personal demonstration by Americans of adher- Bronx dealer, for $1,200. ence to democratic ideals," went to the Carnegie Book Shop here sketches made by Ruby went for $525.

A letter written by him on searcher for $625, Aug. 1 the same year about having "fought long and hard for a good civil rights bill" and addressed to a Negro editor, Al- | the same letter sold for $285.

Advocate," was sold for $250 to Walter R. Benjamin, a New York autograph dealer.

The badly misspelled Oswald letter was exhibit No. 183 in the Warren Commission hearings on the Kennedy assassination in which he acknowledged a birthday card from his mother, asked zines for his wife, Marina, and worry about my losing American citizenship. I can only do that if I want too, and I don't

The letter, dated Oct. 22, 1959. was sold to Maury Bromsen, a Five curious, geometric to a New York medical re-

Jefferson's letter to Elbridge Gerry brought the highest price of the evening, $4,500. In 1935,

--- WICLITC

N.Y. Post 4-7-67