THE MIDLOTHIAN MIRROR

FORGIVE MY GRIEF

VOL. II

BOWERS. I just am unable to describe rather than it was something out of the ordinary, a sort of milling around, but something occurred in this particular spot which was out of the ordinary, which attracted my eye for some reason, which I could not identify.

BALL. You couldn't describe it?

BOWERS. Nothing that I could pinpoint as having happened that—

BALL. Afterwards did a good many people come up there on this high ground at the tower?

Bowers told Mark Lane on film for his documentary "Rush to Judgement" that he thought he saw a little puff of smoke or a little flash of light come from under the trees at the time of the rifle reports which killed the President.

Lee Bowers had been receiving death threats and had taken out a large insurance policy before he was killed in an unusual one car accident in Midlothian, Texas, on August 9, 1966. His car drifted, according to two eye witnesses, into a concrete bridge abutment at 9:30 a.m. going at a speed of 50 miles per hour. The doctor from Midlothian who attended Bowers stated that he did not have a heart attack and that he thought Bowers was in some sort of strange shock.

James R. Worrell, 23, died in a motorcycle-auto accident in Dallas on November 9, 1966. Neither Dallas paper referred to Worrell as an important witness to the assassination. Not only did Worrell testify that he saw the rifle fire from the "Oswald" window, he said he saw a suspect run from the building within three minutes after the shots were fired. His view of the killer, in our opinion, is what made it so necessary for Worrell to die.

Marilyn Magyar (Marilyn Moon or Delilah), 27, of Islip, New York, was a belly dancer and stripper for Jack Ruby at the Carousel Club during November and part of December in 1963. She was a big favorite with the club. At the age of twenty she had married a man from Dallas, John Miranda, who was a drummer. Soon after she married Miranda she got the show biz bug and studied dancing.

Delilah left Dallas when the club closed after the assassination. and at various times she would deny she worked at the Carousel to avoid the publicity. Part of the reason for her denials was that she was planning a book on the assassination, according to reports of friends. At times she would make uncomplimentary remarks about Jack Ruby and these remarks made their way to Eva Grant who started inquiring as to where Delilah could be found.

Leonard Walle of New Orleans wooed and won Delilah while she was appearing at the Sho Bar in New Orleans. Delilah had come to the Crescent City from Omaha, Nebraska where she had been a hit at the Roam Inn. After the wedding took place on August 7, 1966 the couple returned to Omaha where Delilah started a return engagement at the Roam Inn at a salary of $175 per week. Reports conflict on Walle. One story is that he got a job as an electrician while another is that he was unemployed.

Just 24 days after the marriage, Walle called a friend late at night to come to the apartment. He told the friend he had shot Delilah. She had received seven bullets, two through the heart, from a nine shot 38 caliber pistol. One shot missed. Walle was convicted of the crime and received a twenty year sentence in February of 1967.

We do not know why Delilah was killed. But she might have known as much as Rose Cherami, or Betty McDonald, who are both dead. Or she might have known more than Nancy Perrin Rich. Was she considered too important to remain alive?
