Aide Will Ask Garrison to Take A New Look Into Kennedy 'Plot'

By ROBERT E. DALLOS

District Attorney Jim Garri-hension he had about the inleans investigation into the as-sassination of President Ken-nedy, who has "grave misgiv-"If done properly we cand whole matter."

was interviewed here Saturday tion and no matter if the findnight a few hours before he left ings support your case or misgivings concerned "the be-other than to accept it." havior of certain people in the District Attorney's office and the criminal procedures em ployed in this case."

key witnesses in the investiga- ment his cousin, Carl, has sub-

Will Confront Garrison

leans I expect to confront Mr. arm of a soft couch, he said he Garrison as a gentleman, as a had "no reason to believe that friend and as his chief aide," District friend and as his chief aide," does not believe that there was Mr. Gurvich said. "I will a conspiracy to assassinate thoroughly explain my feelings President Kennedy hatched in to him and ask him to take New Orleans." an entirely new look at the whole matter. The results of this meeting will determine my Mr. Gurvich said. status as a member of his staff."

dence to clarify questions that on the substance of their talk develop." develop."

"Up until now this standard professional method of gation. What else was there of criminal investigation was not interest between me from New always used in all phases of Orleans and Robert Kennedy," this investigation," he said. Mr. Garrison contends that Mr. Gurvich said he had "no his investigation uncovered a comment" on whether he had conspiracy to kill President told the Senator the Garrison Kennedy that originated in New investigation was a hoax or had Orleans. Clay L. Shaw, a 54- no basis in fact. year-old retired businessman, Mr. Gurvich, who with two Ferrie had plotted to shoot Mr. weekend by another of Mr. Kennedy. The Warren Commis-Garrison's assistants that Mr.

Asked if he felt the appre- two months.

son's chief aide in the New Or- vestigation also made him be-

"If done properly, we could ings" about the inquiry, will ask have a better case against the the District Attorney to take defendant. Or we could have "an entirely new look at the had a weaker case. But any responsible person would accept the findings of such a profes-the aide William H. Gurvich, sional and reliable investigafor New Orleans. He said his weaken it, you have no choice he criminal procedures em-loyed in this case." In the last few weeks several New York City for a week staying at an East Side aparttion have said they were offered leased from Xavier Cugat. He concessions for their testimony. was dressed in a sports shirt and Khaki trousers and wore no shoes during the interview. "When I return to New Or- Throwing one foot over the Attorney

"Sincere in His Belief"

"He is sincere in his belief,"

Mr. Gurvich, 41, was reported Mr. Gurvich declined to list his specific misgivings but said he "would like to see more ex-tensive and thorough searches made in the gathering of evi-fact." He declined to comment dence to clarify questions that lon the substance of their table

"We talked about the investihas been bound over for trial brothers runs the New Orleans after a preliminary hearing at Patrol Service, a private detecwhich Mr. Garrison alleged tive agency founded by their that Mr. Shaw, Lee Harvey father in New Orleans, denied Oswald and the late David W. a statement made over the sion concluded that Oswald Gurvich had not been connected was the lone assassin. With the case for more than with the case for more than