Lieutenant Accuses Two Generals of War Crimes

by Neil Sheehan

(Story deals with First Lieut. Louis P. Font, who filed charges of war crimes, not specified in story, against Maj. Gen. Samuel W. Koster and Lieut. Gen. Jonathan P. Seaman. "To sustain his case, Lieutenant Font quoted Army scripture - a statement by General of the Army Douglas MacArthur in condemning to death for war crimes a Japanese general who was in command in the Philippines at the time of the Bataan death march.")
