Army Studies Charges Of Killing of 24 Civilians

Ut Alling of 24 Civilians WASHINGTON, June 1 (AP) — The Army said today it was investigating charges that United States airborne troops killed 24 to 40 Vietnamese women and children on a) beach near Bongson in Sep-tember, 1968. The charges that the civi-lians had been killed by a com-pany of the 2d Battalion. 503d. Infantry Regiment, 173d Air-borne Brigade, were made by William E. Marhourn, 30 years old, of St. Paul, according to an article in the Chicago Sun Times.

an article in the Chicago Sun Times. He said the incident oc-curred after an amphibious assault on a beach east of the brigade base camp, Landing Zone English, at Bongson in Hoainhon district of Binh-dinh Province. Mr. Marhoun, a former soldier, first discussed the incident in September at a war crimes hearing in Minne-apolis.
