Colson - "In an August 1972 memo to White House staffers, Colson wrote that it was correct he once said 'I would walk over my grandmother if necessary' to assure the President's re-election."

Congressional Quarterly, ~~Water gate issue, Vol. 1, p. 39~~

- See story on a Colson memo to his staff on re-election efforts; story does not include "grandmother" remark, however. No date is given for Colson memo, *which was obtained by WXPost and published 30 Aug 72.

* 28 Aug 72? See WXP 4 Jun 74, Lawrence Meyer: "The best known statement about Colson was one he made himself in a celebrated memo to other White House aides 71 days before the 1972 election [to] fire them up by demonstrating his own zeal: 'I would walk over my grandmother if necessary.'"
