Rebozo (Hughes contribution) - NYT says Kalmbach, in secret testimony before Ervin committee "last month," said that at Rebozo's request he met with him in WH basement 30 Apr 73, and that Rebozo told him he had distributed portions of the $100,000 Hughes contribution to Nixon's brothers, Donald and Edward Nixon, and to Rose Mary Woods. Kalmbach may have testified to this also before Watergate special prosecutor's office (no date). Lawyers for Rebozo and Woods, and Donald and Edward Nixon all deny this report.

See NYT 8 Apr 74, Seymour Hersh, for other details, including speculation by Terry Lenzner of Ervin committee that Rebozo's purpose in discussion with Kalmbach was to ask him to raise the $100,000 needed to return the contribution; ~~Rebozo's visit~~ apparent rebuff by Kalmbach; Rebozo visit to Abplanalp, "within a week or so" of 27 Jun 73, when the contribution was returned, in cash, to a Hughes representative by William Griffin, Abplanalp's lawyer and business associate.
