Haldeman - In Charlotte, N.C., Haldeman gives deposition in civil suit arising out of a disturbance at Billy Graham meeting 15 Oct 71 in that city.

"Outside the lawyers' offices where the deposition was taken, ... members of a local antiwar group attempted to engage [Haldeman] in a dialogue. When one of the group told Mr. Haldeman to 'go in there and tell the truth,' [he] replied, 'I always have.'"

Rebozo - Judge George L. Hart Jr. orders Rebozo's lawyers to turn over to Jaworski financial documents relating to Rebozo's alleged use of campaign funds for improvements to Nixon's property (Key Biscayne) and to buy earrings for Mrs. Nixon. Rebozo's lawyers had argued the documents were protected by the attorney-client relationship, but Judge Hart says only legal matters, but not business deals, are protected by such a relationship.

Cover-up trial delayed - Sirica, acting at the suggestion of U.S. Court of Appeals, postpones the beginning of the cover-up trial to 30 Sep. Sirica's action reverses his own decision of 19 Aug, in which he had denied requests for delay filed by four of the six defendants and Jaworski.

The cover-up trial originally had been set for 9 Sep.
