

Nov 74

Jane Fonda - Article on suit by ACLU of Southern California against Nixon Administration's political surveillance of Jane Fonda, "originally filed a year ago." (Clippings on Fonda may be found filed either under Reaction or POWs, possibly Nix Ad.)

Defendants are Nixon, Gray, Ruckelshaus, Colson, Dean, Ehrlichman, Mitchell, Haldeman, Kissinger, Kleindienst, Huston, Mardian, and the heads of the FBI, CIA, Bureau of Customs, Attorney General's Office, Defense Department, State Department, Secret Service, Postal Service and Treasury Department.

From story: "The nature of the material [on Fonda] in the FBI ... file strongly suggest that the Huston Plan for domestic intelligence - proposed in 1970 by then White House aide Tom Huston and personally approved by Nixon in July 1970 but allegedly rescinded 5 days later - was never fully halted but rather was in many respects implemented."

Civil Liberties [publication of ACLU, National Office)

Nov 74

- Other suits (p. 2, ref above): Halperin v. Kissinger; Hellman v. Sampson (suit by Lillian Hellman and others for access to 147 Nixon tapes originally subpoenaed by House Judiciary Committee but never delivered, in which Nixon is a defendant; Sparrow v. Goodman (suit of 14 residents of Charlotte, N.C., against Haldeman and others for activities during Billy Graham Day rally, Oct 71, in which Nixon was subpoenaed for testimony.)

Huston Plan -)
Nixon tapes (suit for access) - { See entry, Jane Fonda.
Various suits -)