Nixon (illness) - Unnamed Nixon aide in San Clemente "said Mr. Nixon is so weakened by illness that the mere act of speaking exhausts him." SFC 16 Nov 74 [AP]

Nixon (memoirs) - Nixon aide Franklin R. Gannon files affidavit in U.S. District Court (Judge Charles R. Richey) in which he says Nixon is under contract to complete the first half of his memoirs by Apr 76 for an unidentified "major publisher in this country," citing this as one reason Nixon needs access to papers and documents of his WH tenure as soon as possible.

Affidavit is filed as Judge Richey begins a hearing into the legal question of ownership of presidential papers and the validity of two agreements involving Nixon WH files.
