McCord enters Federal prison at Allenwood to begin serving one-to-five-year term. At a news conference at the prison McCord says there are two things not fully known, one being "the so-called lawyers' conspiracy," in which he claims his attorney was actually working for Mitchell, and "the other, the obvious one, is the Howard Hughes connection." McCord says Nixon's association with Hughes goes back at least 20 years, and that the break-in at Hank Greenspun's office was "a direct favor, political favor, being done for Hughes by Nixon and John Mitchell."
