Haldeman - First hour of two-hour program, intv by Mike Wallace, televised by CBS today. (Both parts recorded on one cassette.) Second hour 30 Mar.

"I should have realized that as a practical matter, that the release of the tapes was not good. And when it got to the point of having to release them, or of having even to consider the possibility of releasing them . . . they should have been destroyed." Haldeman says that he did not realize "the enormous damage that would be done to me and to Richard Nixon."

AP: "But he insisted the system was Nixon's idea. This conflicts with a statement attributed to Mrs. Nixon, who is said to have blamed Haldeman." (Entry 20 Feb 75, Mrs. Nixon [Haldeman].)

WXP and SFEx account of second section of program, 30 Mar. Haldeman thinks Deep Throat was W. "U.S. v. Richard M. Nixon: The Final Crisis." From review by Herbert Mitgang of new book by Frank Mankiewicz:

"Some little men with golf sticks are saying that Mr. Nixon should become a Senator or Republican 'elder statesman' or Ambassador to China. Reading the record as presented [in this book], it is doubtful if the author would recommend the former President even for the job of consul
in exile on Quemoy."

Nixon (physical health) - The Nixons are reported to have taken an automobile drive, "with Mr. Nixon at the wheel of his limousine" and a Secret Service car following. No indication of how long the drive was.

Ⓑ - "High-ranking sources at CBS News" say Haldeman was paid $100,000 for the two ~~ma~~ interviews, (NYT:) "not $50,000 as had been reported previously. The sources, who had supplied the original $50,000 figure and vouched for its accuracy several times, volunteered the new information for the sake of the record. The network, officially, has refused to discuss the terms for the televised interview with Mr. Haldeman."
