Nixon - McCall's Magazine, out today, carries article by Trude B. Feldman, "The Quiet Courage of Pat Nixon." Opening paragraph: "The best decision I ever made was choosing Pat to be my wife, my partner in life," Richard Milhous Nixon said recently. 'I've had prestige, power and even, at times, some money. Those things come and go - as they have with me. But Pat has stood by my side during good times and bad alike. What more could any man ask?'" This is the general tone of the entire article.

Headlines on reports on the article: SFC, "Nixon Says Pat Saved His Life;" WXP, "The Best Decision I Ever Made;" NYT, "Nixon Attributes His Survival to Wife."

Author quotes Mrs. Nixon as saying of Nixon, "Like everyone else he has probably made mistakes - no one is infallible. But he has done many good things for our country and the world." Of the tapes: "They're like a private diary. I wish he had burned them."

NYT says the article "evidentially drew on conversations [by inference, of others] with the former President" and "did not refer specifically to an interview with Mr. Nixon." WXP says "The magazine does not indicate whether Miss Feldman talked to Mr. Nixon directly, and neither the editors nor Miss Feldman could be reached for comment." AMP - A
