Krogh has been hired by Rep. Paul (Pete) McCloskey as legislative assistant; began work today. Krogh says he's "very, very grateful to get back into government," says McCloskey "has been a very helpful and supportive friend over last year and a half."

McCloskey says he is lucky to get Krogh, "a superb lawyer." Says he came to know Krogh through Ehrlichman; Krogh had been a partner in Ehrlichman's Seattle law firm. McCloskey and Krogh met for the first time in Saigon in 1968, when McCloskey was looking into land reform in South Vietnam and Krogh (WFP) "was working in that area."

Krogh, since his release from prison 21 Jun 74, has been giving lectures and conducting seminars on college campuses on such subjects as secrecy and executive privilege, the people's right to know, national security, the prison system and the administration of federal programs.
