

12 May 75

Frank Wills - As shooting begins on movie of Woodward and Bernstein's book, "All the President's Men," Frank Wills plays himself. His lawyer, Dorsey Evans, will not say how much Wills is to be paid for his work in the film but says it's "more than peanuts" and that "We're very pleased."

NYT 13 May 75, Notes on People