Mrs. Nixon (appearance in public) - Mrs. Nixon attends dedication of a school named for her, the Patricia Nixon Elementary School in Cerritos, in Los Angeles county. Story says this is a dairy community 80 miles north of San Clemente and that Mrs. Nixon lived on a farm there from 1914 until 1931; "She last went back in 1969, as First Lady, to dedicate the Pat Nixon children's park."

Story says this is "her first scheduled public appearance" since Nixon's resignation. Nixon's "first prolonged public appearance since he left the White House" is on 8 May; see entry that date.
