Nixon (appearance in public) - Photos of Nixon "strolling" on beach and mingling with campers; Mrs. Nixon appears in one and Julie Eisenhower in another. In one he is shown speaking to a group of three campers, one of whom, a woman, remains seated on the sand with her back turned to him; in another he is walking past a man who is facing him but who remains seated on camp stool. Nixon is wearing jacket with presidential seal.

Caption in SFC says Nixon "recently has eased his seclusion and again takes walks [on Red Beach near his San Clemente home]."
